Review

1. The Situation (53:6a)
2. The Savior (53:3)
3. The Substitute (53:4-6)
4. The Sight (52:15)
5. The Silence (52:15)

Today

6. The _____ (53:7)

a. He was _____

b. He was _____

c. He was like a _____ led to _____

d. He was like a _____ before his _____

How did the Savior respond?

See Matthew 26:59-63, Mark 15:4-5, and Luke 23:9

7. The _____ (53:8)

1 Corinthians 15:3     ... Christ died for us according to the Scriptures

Christ _____ -- cut off out of the land of the living

for _____ -- for the transgressions of my people

according to the _____ -- just as Isaiah 53:8 states some 700 years earlier

8. The _____ (53:9)

See Matthew 27:57-59

When the work of suffering like a sacrificial Lamb and dying for the transgression of his people was done, God began to honor him even in the way he was _____.

Questions for personal reflection and/or discussion:

- Have I given up my rebellion and come into a personal relationship with Jesus Christ?
- Does this text serve as validation of God's revelation to me? If so, how? If not, why not?
- Is today a "spring-time" or a "winter-time" or somewhere in between season in my life?
- What are some of the "winter-time" seasons I've been through in my life? How has God shown himself faithful in those circumstances?
